Earlier this week, coach Frank Cignetti of Leechburg High said, "Arnold definitely means business. They have a big, strong team."

Arnold's coach, Frank Martin, while stopping fullback Doug Yajko in a game, said, "The Lions put them all together last night from the WPAL Class A race via a 18-0 triumph in Leechburg Memorial Stadium before a jam-packed house of about 6,000 fans."

Leechburg's loss left the only undefeated team in the area. The Blue Devils will get a Friday night game at Leechburg.

respective Student:

It is with a great deal of pleasure that Arnold High School look forward to your visit to the senior high school.

We are contemplating our Open House on Tuesday, August 31, at 7:00 p.m. located on Alcoa Drive. Our purpose is to bring you with our building and procedures. Our students will be here to assist you in locating the various rooms to which you are assigned.

Students are urged to bring their parents with them so that we will have an opportunity to answer any questions that they may have and that they also may become acquainted with our building and procedures.

Looking forward to seeing you on this day, I remain, with best wishes and regards.

Mom Can You Give?

Do a crazy, nutty,
sweet, nice, bubbly, funny,
cute girl. Never forget all of the great times
we've had together.

Like the night at handcamp

Strange faces to the students of both the Arnold and New Kensington campuses will appear on the club sections of each edition of the 1968 Valakron. The banners of these clubs pictured here with Mr. Tannas symbolize just a few of the many organizations which will eventually be comprised of combined memberships from both schools.

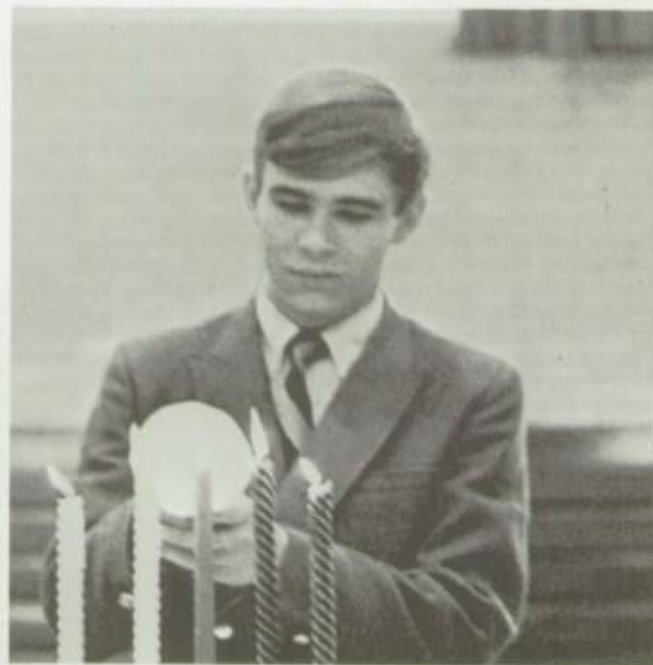

"Congratulations, Barb."

Evening in Oz

"I told you Vince would remember to pick me up!"

"Do I have to eat it?"

Follow the yellow brick road.

"Sour isn't it, Dave?"

Wonder what he's thinking?

"Look at that."

Good Evening . . .

"I'm a big man around here."

"Just a little more straw . . ."

"You taste it first."

"What are you two looking at?"

"I didn't know that!"

Linda's having the time of her life.

"He may be cowardly, but he sure is cute!"

Did you ever have the feeling you were being watched?

We're off to see the wizard

Everyone's having a good time.

Everyone danced . . .

. . . and danced.

"I'll bet you say that to all the boys."

"Where's Ruff?"

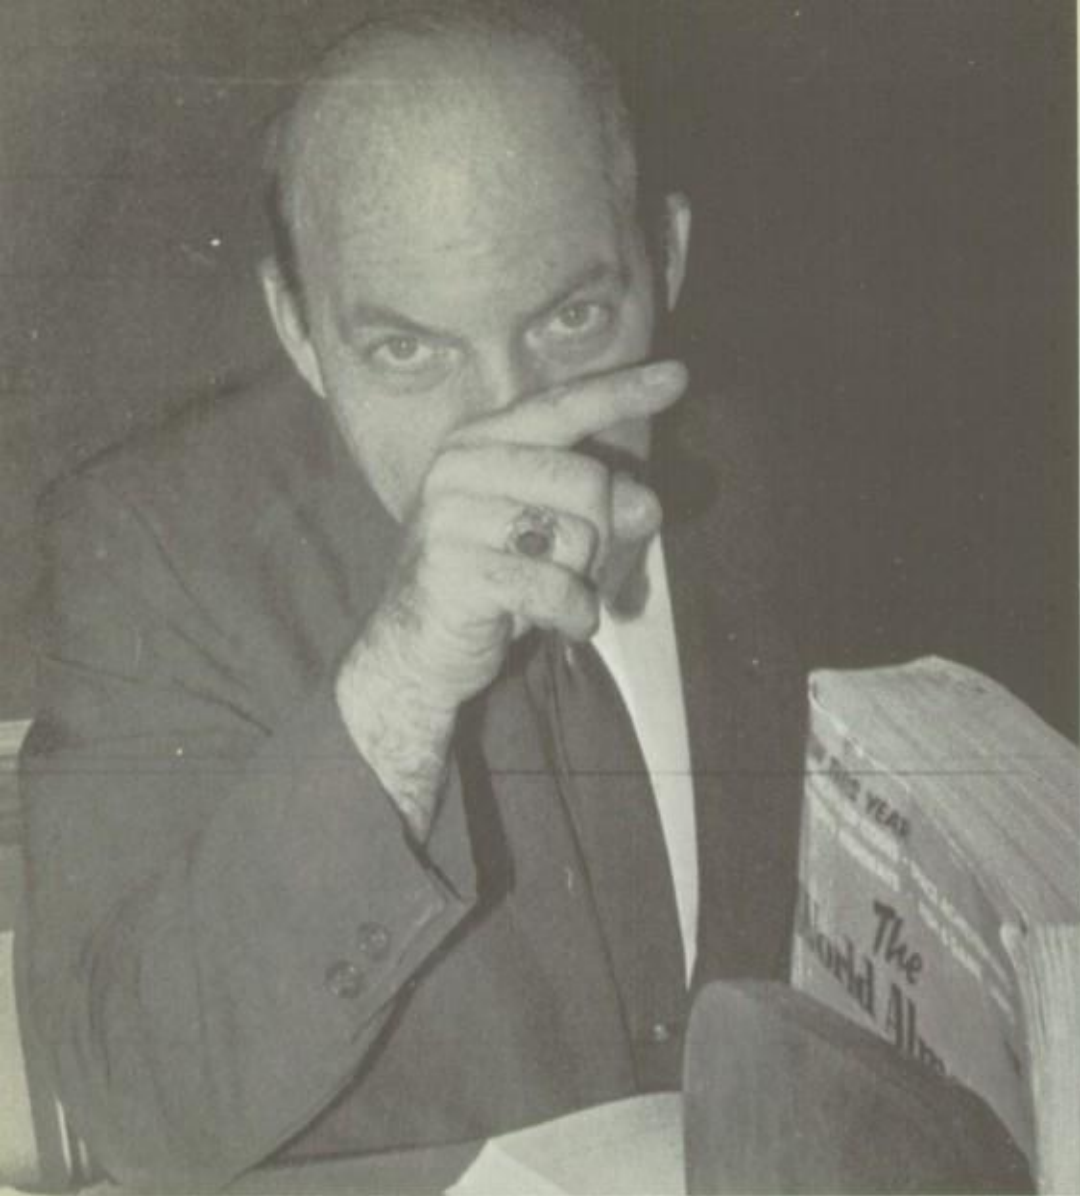

Looking around.

"We decided to sit this dance out."

"Look who's coming!"

Señor le quiere usted.

A happy day at FNA.

"The panel has decided not to decide."

Everyday should be dress-up day.

Eighth-period magazine club.

GEORGINE RESICK
Greater New Kensington Junior Miss

"Gee, two whole blocks without dropping my gym suit."

Only three minutes, boys.

"I think I'd rather be making a snow-man."

"Got to run home and do our homework."

"Maybe Dad can help."

The three musketeers.

Penny for your thoughts.

Attentiveness

Scrutinizing, searching Sam.

"Take whose picture?"

At this rate, there'll never be a prom.

Now in this play . . .

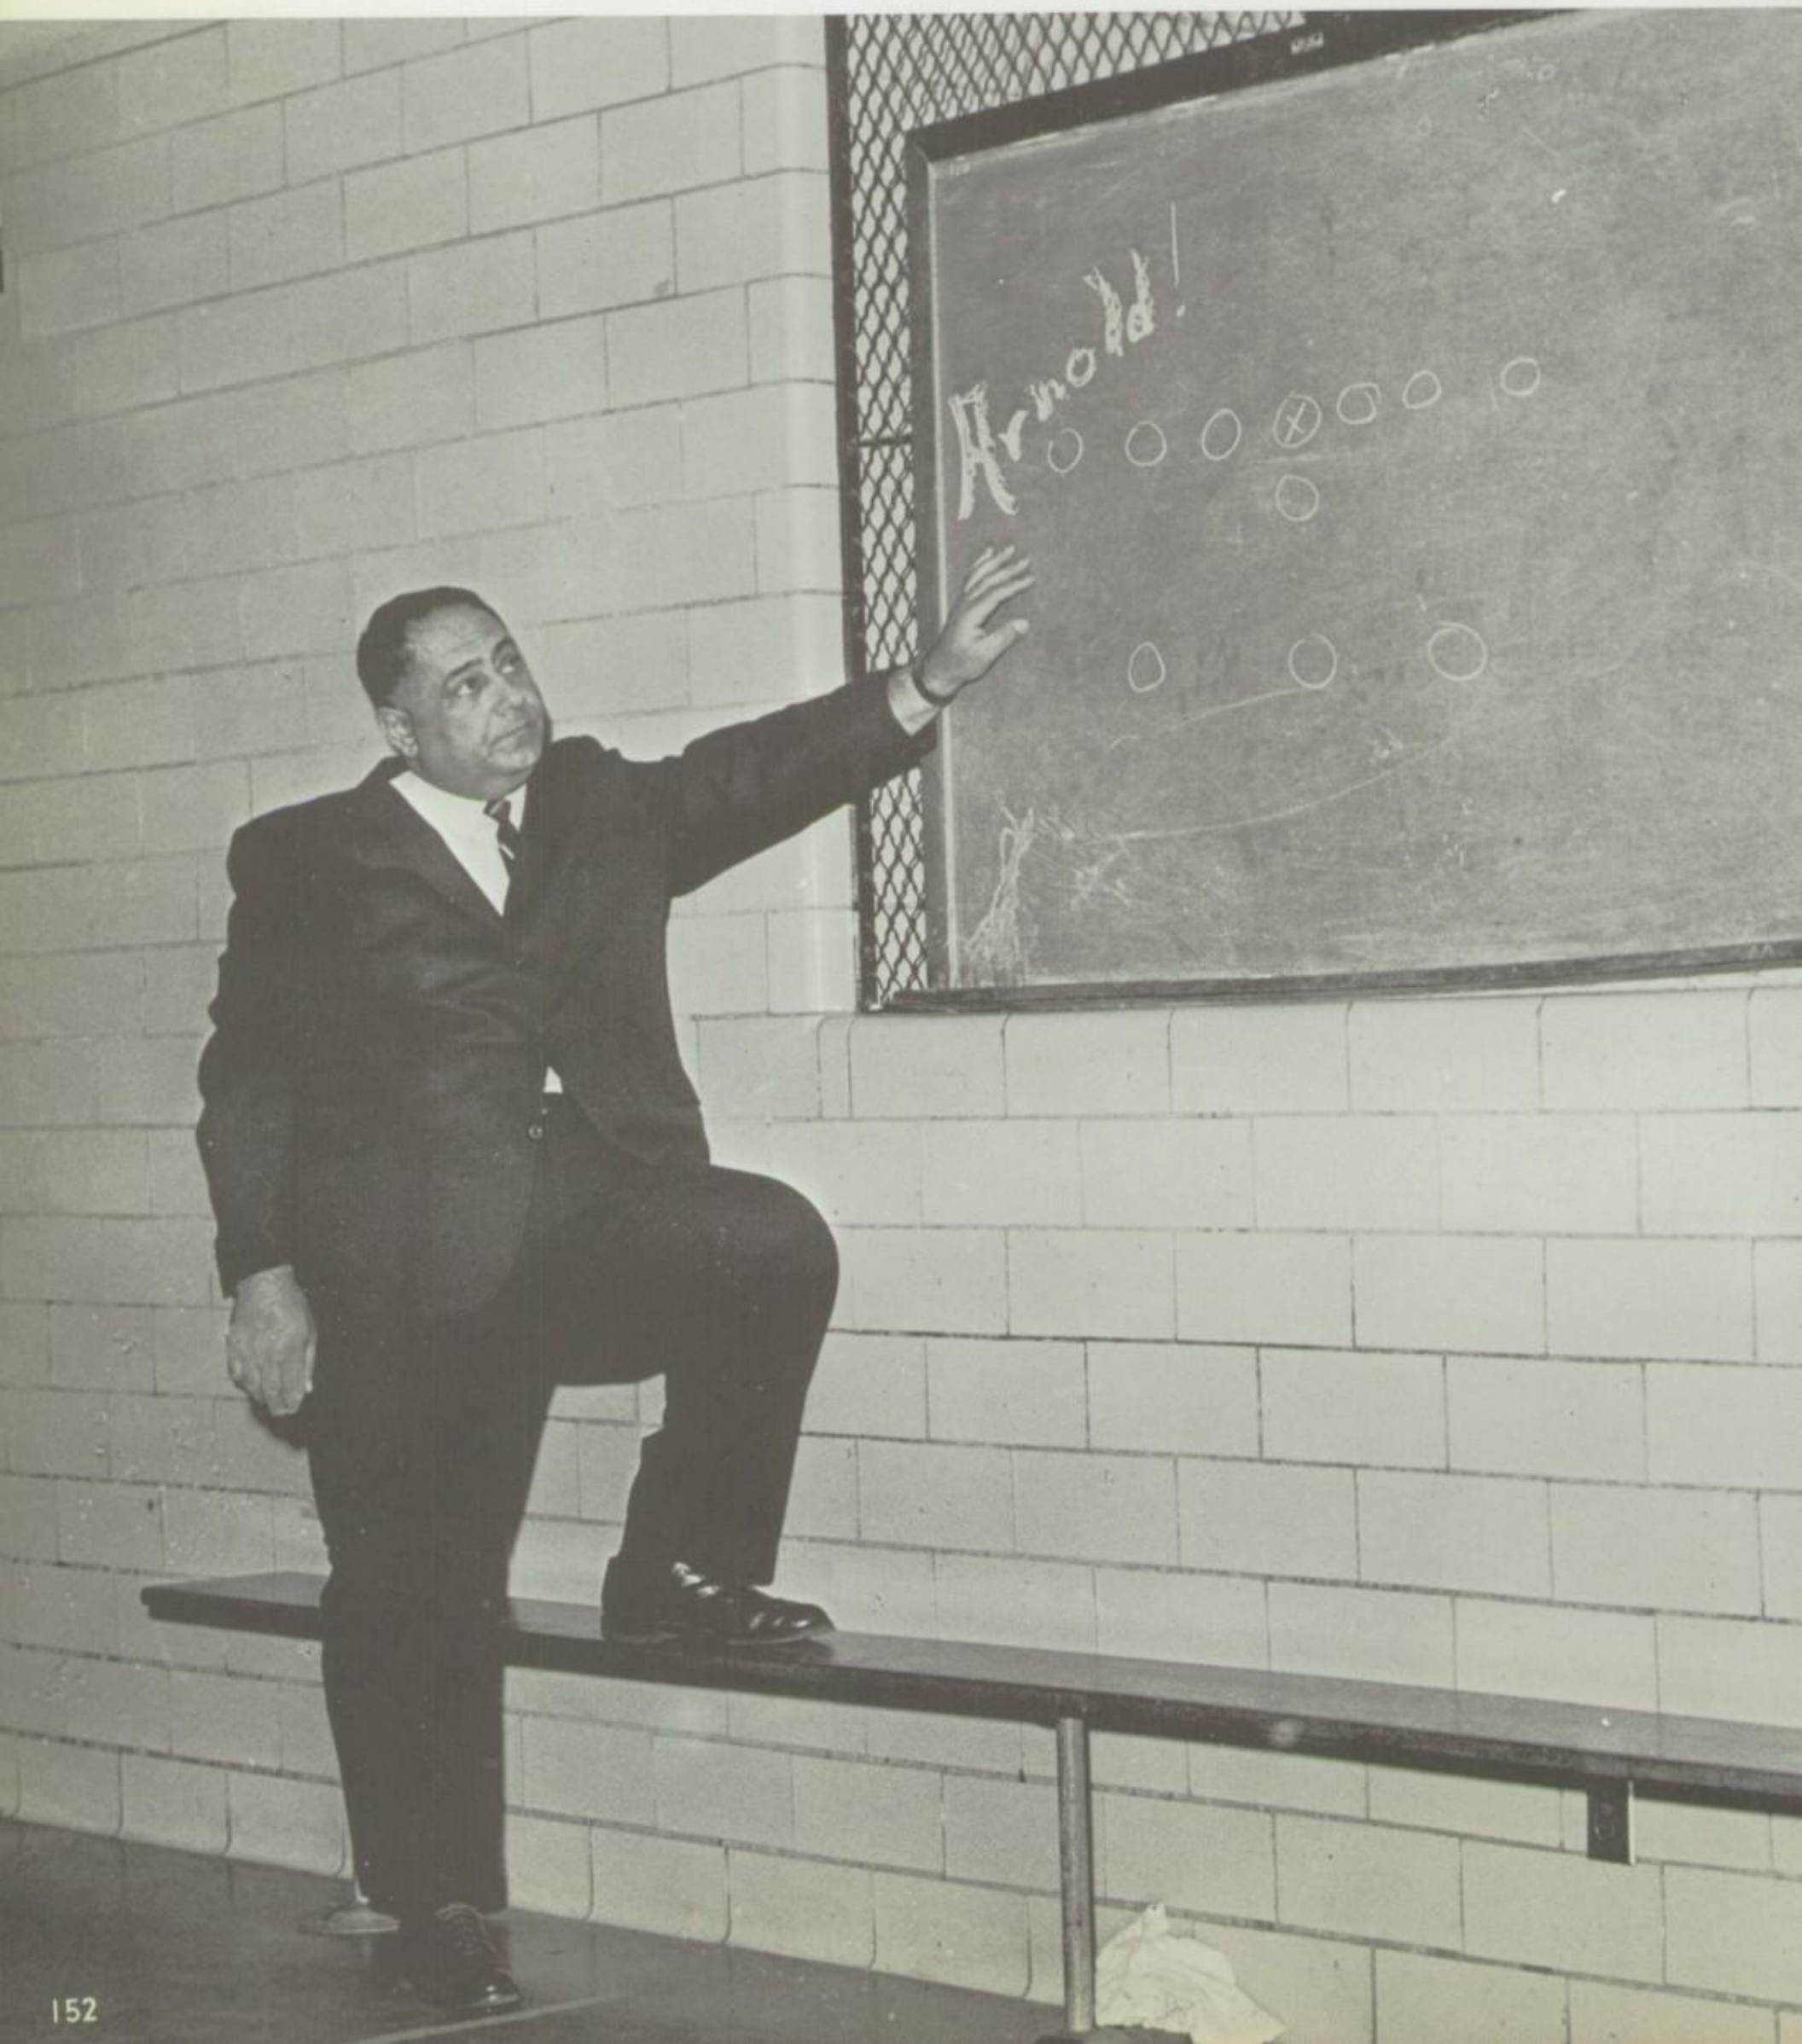

"Ha Ha! Of course twelfth grade is easy."

"How did you get a frat jacket?"

The financial assistance obtained from advertisers and patrons from both Arnold and New Kensington has made it possible for both editions of the Valakron to reach the homes of numerous residents throughout the New Kensington-Arnold School District. Because of their support, the 1968 Valakron will be recorded as the very first yearbook for the school known as Valley High.

Mary Lou,
 So a real tuff girl who isn't to much of a P.O.D. brain. I hope you have lots of luck with Pitt. After graduating I hope you have success in whatever you do.

KAPPA ALPHA PHI SORORITY

Moo Juice,

To one of the nicest,
cutest, funniest girls around and one of my very best friends I could never begin to
A name all the good times
U we've had. While going
T to church every week
O this summer except for G the ones when we go to R Washington D. C. Moo, I really
A want to go so let's pray
P we don't get yolas. You
H better come stay with me
S at college if I go & don't forget to go visit my mom & dad & Kate once in a while. I'll never forget Indianola & how we ever soo hungry & thirsty & just had 25¢. (That's how it usually is!!)
Don't forget how we slept out and were scared to death to go to Danko's. Will you ever forget how we loved Harry? There been a drastic change. I'll never ~~Autograph~~ forgot how depressed we've been and our terrific picnic. We must have another this summer. I'm sorry I got your family in such an uproar the day I got my hair done, but you must admit that was a killer. Well I better go.

Love always Boogs.

Don't kick your shoes off without me there.

Moo

I Hope you get everything that's coming to you haN ha! ha! ha! ha! ha! ha! ha!
ha! ha! ha! ha!??

Well, what can I say after all these years? We've finally come to an end - I can't believe it - but I'm so glad to remember always the fun we've had together. There's just so much that it's hard to even start the list. We spent all of eighth grade together - and that was a ball. Remember when I threw his paddle out the window? We were so bad!! But all through high school we've had a ball too. Remember all the times at the Rooster - we used to go all the time. And remember all the times

I hope we can have more of these in future years. Remember - you can come to Slippery Rock any time and spend a week with me. I want to wish you the best of luck in the future years.

Transition

Transition is a time of change.
In the school world everything is in constant motion;
Every change seems an improvement.
Behind is the accomplished work of yesterdays;
Ahead are the untried tasks of tomorrows . . .
Behind is the encouraging echo of the past;
Ahead are the challenging calls of the future.
